

APR 19 2001

MICHAEL N. MULBY, CLERK OF COURT

IN RE:

DEBTOR

CASE NO. 00-32498-H4-11
(CHAPTER 11)

[illegible]

On April 18, 2001, came on for consideration the Second Application for Allowance of Interim Compensation Through February 28, 2001 by Schully, Roberts, Slattery, Jaubert & Marino, P.L.C. (“Second Application”). After consideration of the pleadings on file and the arguments of counsel, the testimony of Paul J. Goodwine, and recognizing that no objection to the Second Application being filed by any party-in-interest, the court finds that the relief requested in the Second Application should be approved. It is therefore

ORDERED that the Second Application is APPROVED; it is further

ORDERED that, pursuant to the Second Application, Schully, Roberts, Slattery, Jaubert & Marino, P.L.C.'s ("SRSJM") professional fees in the amount of ~~$50,058.50~~ ^{$ 49,848.50} (S24,110.50 for SRSJM's representation of Tri-Union Development Corporation ("Debtor") in the Forcenergy, Inc. bankruptcy, described in paragraph 1(a) in the Second Application, and ~~$25,948.00~~ ^{$ 25,738.00} for SRSJM's representation of the Debtor in Minerals Management Service related matters described in paragraph 1(b) of the Second Application) and SRSJM's request for reimbursement of reasonable and
